

Eternity

Contents

We don't know much in detail about eternity, what it's like, or what we will be doing there. However, the Bible does have some information from which we can draw some inferences.

The Eternal State of Believers and Unbelievers

Man's relationship to God is one of creature to Creator. God is sovereign over the whole human race by virtue of creation, whether this is acknowledged by people or not.

Jer. 32:27. Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh; is anything too difficult for Me?

However, God is not the Father of the human race, only of those who believe.

Gal. 3:26. For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

Man is a living soul; and all souls belong to God.

Gen. 2:7. Then the Lord God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.

Ezek. 18:4. Behold, all souls are Mine; the soul of the father as well as the soul of the son is Mine.

A person's eternal relationship to God is based on that person's response to God's offer of salvation by faith in Jesus Christ.

John 3:36. He who believes in the Son has eternal life; but he who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him.

Therefore, there are two types of people in the human race: believers and unbelievers; saved souls and unsaved souls. And there are two destinations for people in eternity.

A place of bliss:

John 14:1-3. Do not let your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me.

In My Father's house are many dwelling places; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you.

If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also.

Rev. 21:1-22

A place of torment:

Rev. 20:15. And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Luke 16:19-31

The saved soul anticipates

A resurrection to life.

John 5:28,29. Do not marvel at this; for an hour is coming, in which all who are in the tombs will hear His voice, and will come forth; those who did the good *deed*sto a resurrection of life, those who committed the evil *deed*sto a resurrection of judgment.

A "far better place".

Phil. 1:23. But I am hard-pressed from both directions, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, for that is very much better;

Eternity in the presence of God.

2 Cor. 5:8. we are of good courage, I say, and prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.

An inheritance reserved in heaven.

1 Peter 1:3,4. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrectio to obtain an inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for you,

Reunion with loved ones in the Lord.

1 Thess. 4:16,17. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord.

The lost soul must look forward to ... An eternity without Christ (separation from God).

The “resurrection of damnation”.

John 5:28,29. Do not marvel at this; for an hour is coming, in which all who are in the tombs will hear His voice, and will come forth; those who did the good *deed*sto a resurrection of life, those who committed the evil *deed*sto a resurrection of judgment.

The Lake of Fire

Matt. 25:41. Then He will also say to those on His left, ‘Depart from Me, accursed ones, into the eternal fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels;

Rev. 20:15. And if anyone’s name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Rev. 21:8

Characteristics of the Eternal State

- Jesus Christ will be present and accessible to all
- Perfect happiness
- Perpetual newness

There will be nations in eternity as a memorial to the Grace of God in preserving the human race so they could be born-again. Nationalism is the basic principle of survival for the human race.

The New Jerusalem (which comes from God) arrives as a complete package. Apparently it is suspended above Earth. The New Jerusalem is headquarters for the universe of eternity, and it is the personal residence of the Lord Jesus Christ. The New Jerusalem fulfills a promise to Abraham that is still outstanding. Abraham lived in a tent, died in a tent, and was promised a city in the future.

Heb. 11:9,10. By faith he lived as an alien in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, fellow heirs of the same promise; for he was looking for the city which has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

The Holy City of eternity illustrates something of the glory of eternity. The description of the New Jerusalem is in Rev. 21:9 to 22:5.

The Believer’s Hope in Eternity

The believer’s hope is based on the fact that we know facts concerning eternity. For example, we will be absent from the body and face-to-face with the Lord.

2 Cor. 5:7,8. for we walk by faith, not by sight

we are of good courage, I say, and prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.

There is no judgment for the sins of believers.

Rom. 8:1. Therefore there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

The appointment of the 2nd Death is cancelled.

Heb. 9:27,28. And inasmuch as it is appointed for men to die once and after this comes judgment, so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time for salvation without reference to sin, to those who eagerly await Him.

We have a new home; a new dwelling place.

John 14:1-3. Do not let your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me.

In My Father’s house are many dwelling places; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you.

If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also.

We have an eternal inheritance.

1 Peter 1:3-5. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to obtain an inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, who are protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

We will have no more sorrow, no more tears.

Rev. 21:4. and He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away.”

We will have a resurrection body in which we will live with Jesus Christ forever.

1 Thess. 4:16-18. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord.

Therefore comfort one another with these words.

Phil. 3:21. who will transform the body of our humble state into conformity with the body of His glory, by the exertion of the power that He has even to subject all things to Himself.

1 John 3:1,21 Cor. 15:51-57

Phil. 1:21. For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.
